

Slinger Community Library COMMUNITY ROOM POLICY

I. INTRODUCTION

The Slinger Community Library provides space for meetings and programs of an informational, educational, cultural or civic nature. The Slinger Community Library subscribes to the principles set forth in the American Library Association Library Bill of Rights: "Libraries which make exhibit spaces and meeting rooms available to the public they serve should make such facilities available on an equitable basis, regardless of the beliefs or affiliations of the individuals or groups requesting their use". Use of library's meeting room does not in any way constitute library endorsement of the activities, purposes or viewpoints expressed by the groups and the individuals involved.

Meetings held in the library are considered public meetings open to all who wish to attend subject to fire and occupancy codes. Use of the meeting rooms must be in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). Individuals, groups and organizations using the meeting rooms must fulfill their obligations listed in the policy. Failure to abide by the Slinger Community Library's Community Room policy may result in cancellation of, or refusal to allow, future reservations.

The capacity of the Community Room is as follows per fire code: 66 people

The Community Room is available for groups, individuals or organizations to conduct programs, meetings, seminars, study groups, planning sessions, training and related activities. The Responsible Party must be at least 18 years of age to reserve the community room. Groups and organizations whose primary members are under the age of eighteen (18) must be accompanied by at least one adult supervisor (someone over the age of eighteen) per FIVE (5) people under the age of twelve. People using the meeting rooms should keep in mind that the library is a public facility and as such behavior that is disruptive to regular operations of the library or which could possibly be dangerous to library users or meeting room users will not be tolerated. Individuals, groups and organizations may be asked to vacate the premises immediately if it is deemed that behavior is either disruptive or dangerous. Future meeting room usage could be suspended for a minimum of six months if behavior leads to eviction.

Permission to use the community room will be denied to an organization and/or meeting whose purpose is illegal or whose activity does not have the sponsorship of a legally responsible adult registered for community room use with the library.

The Library Director has the authority to issue reasonable meeting room rules and to revoke permission for use of the community room if the policy or these rules are not followed.
